

What did you do at lunchtime?

I jumped into my monstertruck and went to Frankie and Benny's and on my way back I raced an old lady who was in a sports car. I raced her to school. We were going 300 mph but then she had a heart attack and her car blew up. All flames were everywhere. All parts of the car were scattered everywhere. I went back into boring old school and had playtime and played with my rocket launcher and blew up everyone into tiny pieces. But Luke was still alive so I stuck a bomb to Luke's head and his brains went everywhere then I had a few chips with Mrs Bowers and then I blew her up.

By Sam Shipman