

Sita's Exciting Horse Ride

By Chloe

Y4 POW! Group, Parkdale Primary School

One summer Sunday morning Sita got up and ran to her mum's bedroom, feeling really excited because she was going horse riding for the very first time. Mum was still in bed fast asleep and she was shocked that Sita had woken her.

Her mum got up, got dressed and went down for breakfast. Sita was so excited and kept on telling her mum to hurry up.

Sita was friendly with everyone and was always there to help people out. She had many friends but her best friend was Nicky. Sometimes Nicky went horse riding with her and Sita met lots of friends.

Sita's friends were called Joe and Ashley. They all liked to go horse riding, but Sita did not know how it felt because she had never been before.

After breakfast that Sunday, Sita was still excited as this was the day she was going riding. Sita's mum took them all to the stables. Their ponies were all ready for them so all they had to do was get on them.

They all went down to the village past the busy farm when a tractor came out of the lane and scared the ponies, but Sita's horse was calm, almost as if she could sense it was her first time.

Sita began to relax as they got past the farm and into the countryside. She enjoyed looking at all the wildlife and listening to the birds sing. On the way back Sita felt on top of the world. She loved it! When they passed the farm on the way back Sita was sure Lisa would look after her again and sure enough Lisa did, but as they were walking along the grass a squirrel ran out of the hedge and scared Sita's pony so much that she ran off! Sita was worried and not sure whether she would ever stop.

Sita sat deep in the saddle and held on very tightly hoping she wouldn't fall off but she tried talking to Lisa and that seemed to calm her down and eventually she stopped but Sita wasn't sure where she was going and what way to get home. Then she remembered she had her mobile phone with her and tried calling the others but there was no signal.

Lisa kept neighing and moving around as if she was trying to tell her something so Sita decided to let Lisa try and find the way home. As Lisa turned round and walked down the path she was very worried and cold but had a feeling that Lisa would get them home. Then she kept walking down the path and found two turnings. She took the first turning and kept going and thought the path would never end.

Then she saw two houses and thought she recognised one of them. It was her grandma's house so she jumped off Lisa and went to go to grandma.

Her grandma sat her down and asked her if she was ok. Sita said, "Yes," but said she needed to phone her dad to tell him she was ok and after she had phoned, her dad came to her grandma's and walked with Lisa and Sita to help them on their way back. When they arrived back at the stables everyone was very relieved to see she and Lisa were back safe and sound!