

Joe and Ashley and the Suspicious Stranger

By Luke

In 1974 in America in a town called Jacksonville a family of mum, dad and two boys were gathered around a really old fashioned computer. They were a rich family who lived at 3 Climb Drive with other rich families. Joe one of the children was mad about computers like his younger brother Ashley.

While they were playing with the computer Joe saw a suspicious stranger. Ashley was thinking so much about the game that he didn't notice. Joe was trying to get his attention. Finally Joe got Ashley's attention they both looked at the suspicious stranger then there was a small crack on the window, it got bigger and bigger every second.

All of a sudden the window smashed. The suspicious stranger had a thing which looked like a gun but instead of firing bullets it fired rocks and they damaged the computer badly. "Oh no!" shouted Joe. "Quick let's get mum and dad," said Ashley. Dad rushed down the stairs.

"Oh dear," said dad. "I think he is from another planet."

The suspicious stranger plodded straight for Joe, Ashley and dad. His face was fierce. Ashley and dad dashed down the stairs to the living room and slammed the door behind them. They dragged the settee in front of the door to stop the stranger from coming in the living room. Dad switched off the TV and told Sita about what happened. Then they saw the suspicious stranger again. The suspicious stranger managed to get through the keyhole in to the living room. Everyone was very shocked about it.

Suddenly the suspicious stranger dashed for the TV. Everyone trembled, then the suspicious stranger disappeared in to the TV and everybody sighed with relief. "Mum, dad, can you fix the computer for us?" shouted Joe and Ashley.

Suddenly everyone realised that everything looked normal again and they went about their normal every day things. What an unusual adventure they had all had!
