

HOW THE THING SHAPED UP

By Max Jarvis

Horrible Things Happen at Night

BY MAX

One winter's day around mid-day, Joe, Nicky, Sita and Ashley were out in the countryside. They were feeling excited about Ashley's birthday party. They were riding their bikes to Ashley's home.

Then a snow drift came in and Joe fell off his bike and he hurt his knee. They were lost at first then mum came and rescued them.

After they were rescued they reached home and they put Joe in the bath. After an hour Joe's knee was better than ever. Then he went down stairs and he joined the others and watched a movie which was scary.

Then they had a party and had lots of fun. After that they watched another movie and had a great time. Joe went to bed and he couldn't get to sleep and in his dream he had a nightmare and it was scary.

The nightmare was about the movie. He woke up and said, "It's not real." In the end he and his friends had a celebration with fireworks.

Whilst they were watching the fireworks one of the fireworks exploded and it cast fire onto the shed and it got burned down and it had all the toys inside. To their amazement the toys were saved and the children played on their bikes until dawn.

Nicky and Joe were jumping for joy, for their toys were saved, but suddenly, two or three bees came from nowhere and bit them. They were afraid and in the morning they had a ginormous mark on their ears! Everybody said, "Help, we have been stung by a nasty, angry, huge bee." The sting was like a razor sharp sword across their ears. Joe and Ashley were stung really badly.

The children rushed into the house to show Joe's parents. Dad looked surprised when he saw the children's ears. Hanging off Joe's and Ashley's ears was a huge monster alien BEE! Dad nearly fainted in shock.

Before dad could say anything the alien bee gurgled in anger and like normal bees it grew a massive stinger and then suddenly it flew away. Everybody stood there in shock. The other bees flew off.

Joe looked red and had a stinger on his body! Suddenly, he turned into a bee and Nicky, Ashley and Sita were crying their eyes out and nearly made a river in the house!

They decided to look in all the books they had and on the internet to try and find an anecdote to turn Joe back into himself. With a stroke of luck they found something that would help, so they got all the ingredients and made a potion which Joe drank. Suddenly Joe was again human and all the family had a celebration and talked about what had happened to all of the children. The family thought it was great.