

The Exciting Bowling Game

By Preston Harris

One day Nicky, Ashley, Joe and Sita were eating their breakfast. Nicky finished first then Nicky, Ashley, Joe and Sita decided to go out for the day. They went bowling with their mum.

Nicky was ten years old and liked going out but most of all he liked bowling. He really liked eating his breakfast especially eggs. Nicky got scared when his friends made strange noises and dressed up as ghosts. He got seven pounds a week pocket money and liked spending it on sweets. His favourite sweets were Choc Dips which he thought were yummy.

At the bowling alley Nicky put his sweets where the balls were stored. Suddenly one of the sweets turned into a huge ball. In it was a cake. Nicky was upset about the cake because he did not like cake. The ball sucked Nicky's friends up inside it like a Hoover. They were terrified. They started to eat the cake except Nicky who hated cake. Suddenly they started to feel weird. Then Nicky started to poke the ball until it popped like a water bomb and everyone fell out and rolled down the lane and got a strike.

They laughed because they got a strike but they were upset because the man in charge of the bowling alley was cross because the cake was all over the place! Because the game was over everyone had to leave for home. Their parents could not believe what had happened to them and said they wanted to go with them next time.
